Rev. Charles Eaton,

Madison Avenue Baptist Church,

New York.

Dear Dr. Eaton:

It is a long time since we have had you give a sermon at the University of Toronto. Do you think it would be possible for you to come to us after the New Year ? We have January 20th vacant and all of March except the 17th; the only proviso I make being that at the same time I am writing to Dr. Johnston Ross of the Union Seminary asking him to take one of these days. I shall esteem it a great favour if you will let me know whether there is any chance of your coming.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

October 2nd, 1917.

My dear Sir Robert:

I thank you for your invitation to preach at the University of Toronto, and shall be very glad to accept. Either March 10th or March 24th will be the best Sundays for me. When you decide which one of these dates you prefer kindly let me know.

With sincere regards, I remain

Faithfully yours,

New York City.

Dear Dr. Eaton:

I am glad to know that you are able to come to us. You say that either March 10 or 24 will be best Sundays for you. Meanwhile will you be kind enough to put down the 24th? It is just possible that in order to meet the convenience of Dr. Hugh Black we might ask you to take the 10th, but I will let you know if there is any change within ten days.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Rev. C. Eaton,

80 East 81st Street,

New York City.

Dear Dr. Eaton:

Pardon my delay in not writing to you before and definitely fixing the date for your sermon. I hope that March 24th will suit you. We shall count upon that unless we hear from you to the contrary, and we anticipate great pleasure from your visit.

Yours sincerely,

President.
